Banning Ottawa's Arms Shows, for Good!

In 1989, during a campaign by the Coalition to Oppose the Arms Trade, Ottawa's City Council passed a Motion banning all future arms exhibitions from municipal property. As a result, no such shows have been held at any City of Ottawa facility for twenty years! Many veteran activists will remember when thousands—led by former Ottawa Mayor, Marion Dewar—took to the streets in May 1989 to peacefully protest against ARMX, the now-defunct arms bazaar then held at Ottawa's Lansdowne Park. Now, City Staff claim that due to a legal technicality, Ottawa's ban no longer applies to one municipal facility, Lansdowne! As a result, the CANSEC arms bazaar—a closed, private event—will be hosted at this publicly-funded facility.

- Urge Council to honour their ban on arms trade shows
- Spread the word; Urge groups to endorse the May 27 event
- Keep informed & active by visiting the COAT website
- Distributing fliers & collect signatures on petitions.
